

Cristina Finocchi Mahne

Born in Trieste in 1965. Over 20 years of experience as a C-suite executive/board advisor of listed banking groups/high-level consulting firms; over 13 years as a board member of FTSE/STAR/AIM Italia and NYSE listed companies; over 10 years of academic experience in economic-financial matters and ESG sustainability; 8 years of leadership association experience as the president of the national chapter of a global foundation. Since 1999, actively involved in ESG sustainability.

Serving as a Board Member of listed companies since 2010 (sectors: green energy, industrial/infrastructure, banking/financial, media/IT/communication, telco towers, consumer discretionary, healthcare), and Chair of endo-board committees, with solid experience in regulated sectors. Currently, sitting on the Boards of companies listed on the FTSE and STAR Italia indices, and serving as the Chair of risk & sustainability and nomination committees. Her profile meets the professionalism and integrity requirements outlined in the 'fit & proper' guidelines of the ECB.

She graduated in Economics and Commerce from La Sapienza University of Rome and earned a Master's in Business Administration, MBA, from Luiss Business School. Subsequently, she completed further specializations in finance, financial communication, and management skills in London and Los Angeles.

A speaker at national/international conferences and author of publications and articles on economic-financial and ESG sustainability issues. A member of the Scientific Committee of the CSEA (Center for Applied Economic Studies) and Adjunct Professor at Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore Milano, Faculty of Banking, Financial, and Insurance Sciences, Clinical lectures - Sustainability strategies and non-financial reporting.

Formerly a lecturer in Advanced Business Administration (12 CFU) and Economics of Industrial and Banking Groups (6 CFU) at the Faculty of Economics, University of Rome La Sapienza, and Corporate Governance lecturer at the Luiss Business School International MBA.

Co-founder in 2012 of the Italian chapter, serving as Co-President for 8 years, and since June 2020, a member of the Global Visionary Awards Committee of the WCD Foundation (WomenCorporateDirectors), USA.

A member of the Scientific Committee - chaired by the neuroscientist Giacomo Rizzolatti, discoverer of mirror neurons - of Kindacom, an executive communication and neuroscience consulting company, Milan. A member of the Scientific Committee, Centesimus Annus Foundation, Vatican City. A member of the London Advisory Board, Fordham University NY, USA. A member of Nedcommunity, the Italian association of non-executive and independent administrators.